JANET FOX, TRADITIONAL PUBLISHING AND AGENTS

Traditional publishing is a goal for many authors, but do you understand the process? Janet Fox, an author of Young Adult novels, has succeeded in this competitive field and has much to share with you in her presentation on Traditional Publishing and Agents.

Whether you think you want to publish traditionally or not, understanding the business will help you across the board.

REBECCA BALLOTTA – HOW TO FIND A GOOD EDITOR

Whether you are publishing traditionally or independently, you need an editor, but how do you figure out who the right editor is for your manuscript? Rebecca Ballotta, a successful and experienced freelance editor, will explain about the different kinds of editors, how to decide which you need, how to interview an editor, and what you can expect when you work with an editor in her presentation How to Find a Good Editor.

ROBYN BRIDGES – PASSION FOR YOUR PROJECT

Passion can lift your writing from average to sublime, and be a factor in finding your audience and publication success. Passion for Your Project: The Heart of Direct Experience, presented by Robyn Bridges, is a hands-on, interactive workshop where you can discover how to explore, develop, and reveal your deepest connection to your work. She'll show you how to unlock your passion, elevate your writing, and connect with your audience.

TROY KECHELY – GETTING IT RIGHT – RESEARCH IN THE REAL WORLD

As a reader, you know accuracy is important, but as a writer do you know how to get those interviews and experiences that will lend authenticity to your writing? The facts are important in both fiction and nonfiction, and you'll learn how to get the information and experience you need in Getting It Right: Research in the Real World, presented by Troy Kechely. He'll explain how research can be fun and how to incorporate realism into your novel or verify the details in your nonfiction book to make it exceptional.

LYNN KINNAMAN – PUBLISHING OPTIONS – HOW TO CHOOSE THE ONE FOR YOU

What's the difference between independent publishing, traditional publishing, and hybrid publishing? How do you decide which one to choose?

In Lynn's presentation, Publishing Options – How to Choose the One for You, you'll learn the pros and cons of each path so you can make the best choice for your publication strategy. We'll go over a checklist of what to ask yourself to determine what will fit your needs and goals best.

AND THAT'S NOT ALL!

PLUS – There will be an opportunity to read and be critiqued by your peers (first come, first served – please request a spot when you register, limited spaces available).

AND you'll have a chance to purchase signed books by the author/speakers.

AND DOOR PRIZES! Including a drawing for a Kindle Fire! (Must be present to win).
